

REFERENCE BOOK

TELEMEDICINE FOR
HOMEOPATHIC
PRACTITIONERS

LAW | GUIDELINES | PRACTICE

Balaji Srinivasan

*Additional Advocate-General, State of Tamil Nadu
Advocate-on-Record, Supreme Court of India
Senior Partner, The Medlegal Attorneys*

Mayank Kshirsagar

Advocate-on-Record, Supreme Court of India

Institute of Medicine & Law

Value Driven. Evidence Based.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface

Part I - Introduction

- Chapter 1. A Permanent Law
- Chapter 2. Definition
- Chapter 3. Strengths & Limitations
- Chapter 4. Faulty Assumptions

Part II - Permissions & Prohibitions

- Chapter 5. An Absolute Right to Both
- Chapter 6. Doctors - Permissions
- Chapter 7. Doctors - Misconduct
- Chapter 8. Patients - Duty
- Chapter 9. Permissions / Classification
 - Chapter 9A. Permitted - Modes of Communication*
 - Chapter 9B. Permitted - Timing of Information Transmission*
 - Chapter 9C. Permitted - Purposes of Consultation*
- Chapter 10. Permitted - Interactions (Settings / Persons involved)
 - Chapter 10A. Doctor + Patient*
 - Chapter 10B. Doctor + Caregiver*
 - Chapter 10C. Doctor + Health Worker*
 - Chapter 10D. Doctor + Doctor*

PART III - Guiding Principle

- Chapter 11. The Guiding Principle
- Chapter 12. Pre-consult Questions
- Chapter 13. Pre-consult Factors

Part IV - General Flow

- Chapter 14. General Flow / Framework for Consultations

Part V - Do's & Don'ts (Procedural)

Chapter 15. Initiation

Chapter 16. Doctor-Patient Identification

Chapter 17. Patient's Consent

Chapter 17A. 'Consensus Ad-idem' - Meeting of the Minds

Chapter 18. Prescription - Issuing / Transmitting

Chapter 19. Documenting / Maintaining - Digital Trail

Chapter 19A. One shortcoming - Clarification required

Chapter 20. Preparation

Part VI - Do's & Don'ts (Clinical)

Chapter 21. Exchange of Information / Patient Evaluation

Chapter 22. Patient Management

Chapter 23. Emergency Patients

Chapter 24. New / Referred Patients

Part VIII - Audio / Video Etiquettes

Chapter 27. Audio Etiquettes

Chapter 28. Video Etiquettes / Other aspects

Part IX - Causes of Concern

Chapter 27. Tele-prescription - First Cause

Chapter 28. Patients Personal Data - Second Cause

Appendices

Appendix I. Telemedicine Practice Guidelines 2020

Appendix II. IRDA Guidelines on Telemedicine